2026 Nobel Peace Prize.

THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE 2026

- More than 2.4 billion children are nominated.
- Nominations submitted by prominent supporters and a Nobel Peace Prize laureate.
- A stark reminder that children worldwide are at the mercy of the cruel consequences of wars and crises, and yet their voices go unheard.
- A moral commitment on the part of adults to prioritise the needs of children when shaping the future.

THE CAMPAIGN

#WEAREPEACE

- We are supporting the nomination for the Nobel Peace Prize with an initiative designed to highlight the peaceful nature we all possess from birth.
- One day in September 2026, children and adults from all 195 nations will come together in a prominent public space and do what children naturally do: they play together.

ONE CHILD FROM EVERY NATION ON EARTH

THE MESSAGE FOR THE WORLD

- The international media will pick up on this positive image and report: children from conflict regions playing together, former adversaries becoming inseparable, and young people from divided societies sharing positive experiences.
- The message is that people are fundamentally peaceful until they are conditioned otherwise by their upbringing and socialisation.
- Children stay in motion where we have settled into fixed positions. That openness to shift perspective is what we call play.

This campaign marks the start of our efforts to raise awareness of our demand:

All children of the world, every human being under the age of 18, deserve the Nobel Peace Prize 2026.

The nomination of all children has opened up spaces for conversation, for listening, for thinking together about what responsibility means today.
